

Senior of the Month

April 2026

Student: David Brooks
High School: Tabb High School
Principal: Mary Lugo
Parent(s): Andrew and Lindsey Brooks

Tabb High School is proud to recognize David Brooks. David is honored for his exceptional leadership, academic excellence, and service to the Tabb High School community. Throughout high school, he has demonstrated integrity, discipline, and a genuine commitment to others, earning the respect of peers and faculty. Academically, David has excelled in rigorous coursework, particularly in upper-level mathematics. Over three years in advanced math classes, he consistently volunteered to solve problems, assisted classmates, and challenged himself. He has thrived in demanding coursework while participating in National Honor Society, Beta Club, DECA, and Unified Tigers, reflecting strong dedication and time-management skills. David is equally committed to service. As an assistant coach and unified partner with the Area 22 Special Olympics golf team, he devotes time, often on Saturdays, to patiently supporting athletes of varying abilities, even beyond the competitive season. As a football team captain, David led by example and encouraged teammates. He is also an accomplished track athlete competing and winning at the state level. Across academics, athletics, and service, David embodies responsibility, humility, and dedication.
